The Ten Commandments of Marriage

- (1) Do not place others before one another. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife.
- (2) Let nothing on earth become more important than your marriage. Seek first God's will in your marriage and the other things will come as He desires.
- (3) Speak to one another with kindness and love. Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word kindly spoken.
- (4) Remember to worship together. Oh come, let us worship and bow down. Let us kneel before the Lord our maker. For He is our God.
- (5) Love and accept one another's family as your own. Your people shall be my people.
- (6) Do not harm one another with words, attitudes, or actions. Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamour and evil speaking be put away from you... and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ has forgiven you.
- (7) Be faithful to one another. The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. And the two shall become one flesh.
- (8) Never take joy from one another. Above all things put on love, which holds everything together in perfect harmony.
- (9) Always speak the truth in love. The Lord will show you what is right and true, that you may always speak with integrity.
- (10) Do not desire or be envious of what others may have. I have learned that in whatsoever state I may be, to be content. (Selected)

The Old Paths

I liked the old paths, when Mums were at home. Dads were at work. Brothers went into the armed forces. And sisters got married BEFORE having children!

Crime did not pay; Hard work did; and people knew the difference.

Mums could cook; Dads would work; Children would behave.

Husbands were loving; Wives were supportive; and children were polite.

Women wore the jewellery; and Men wore the pants. Women looked like ladies; Men looked like gentlemen; and children looked decent.

Hymns sounded Godly; Sermons sounded helpful; Rejoicing sounded normal; and crying sounded sincere.

Cursing was wicked; Drugs were for illness; and divorce was unthinkable.

The flag was honoured; America was beautiful; and God was welcome!

We read the Bible in public; Prayed in school; and preached from house to house. To be called an American was worth dying for; To be called a Christian was worth living for; To be called a traitor was a shame!

Preachers preached because they had a message; And Christians rejoiced because they had the VICTORY! Preachers preached right from the Bible; Singers sang from the heart; and sinners turned to the Lord to be SAVED!

A new birth meant a new life; Salvation meant a changed life; Following Christ led to eternal life.

Being a preacher meant you proclaimed the word of God; being a deacon meant you would serve the Lord; being a Christian meant you would live for Jesus; and being a sinner meant someone was praying for you!

Laws were based on the Bible; Homes read the Bible; Churches taught the Bible.

God was worshiped; Christ was exalted; and the Holy Spirit was respected.

Church was where you found Christians on the Lord's Day, rather than in the garden, on the creek, on the golf course, or being entertained somewhere else.

I still like the old paths the best!

Jeremiah 6:16 Jer 6:16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.
